Applicants Please Note:

All child serving agencies are mandated, by law, to conduct criminal background checks and drug screening on all students serving internships or field placements. These agencies are also mandated, by law, to conduct criminal background checks on all new employees. Students applying for the CWWPEP scholarship program are hereby notified that having a felony conviction or sanctions for unprofessional conduct will impact potential for obtaining field placement (required for graduation), as well as social work licensure and future employment as a social worker. Please consider these issues carefully before submitting an application
